An investigation of the Honolulu wharves by the Harbor Commissioners is said to have resulted in the finding of ample reasons for Capt. Tripp's removal. ### Some Packard Talk

From New York to San Francisco in a motor truck is the trip completed recently by E. L. Burnett, of Detroit. With him at the finish were W. T. Fishleigh and Arnold Hainer the former joining the party at Omaha, Neb., and Hainer in Detroit. It is the first time that a commercial motor vehicle has ever made the continuous trip and the one that did it is a three-ton Packard.

The start was made July 8. The three-ton vehicle was caravan equipped, and except for the absence of horses or mules, presented much the appearance of a prairie schooner. Sand bags were carried for ballast, along with one barrel of gasoline and another of oil. The cargo was three tons and the total weight over 13,000 pounds.

Although they struck much bad going in the middle west it was not until after leaving Omaha, that the real seriousness of the undertaking began to present itself. First they broke through a bridge near Dunlap but got themselves out without damage. On July 28 they arrived at Buffalo Bill's ranch on the trail between Cozad and Sutherland.
